W-JCC SCHOOL BOARD CANCELS BUDGET DISCUSSION MEETING SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 25

Williamsburg, VA, Feb. 24 – The Williamsburg/James City County School has cancelled a meeting originally scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 25, to discuss the 2010-11 budget due to continuing uncertainty about what the Virginia Legislature’s final budget figures will be, W-JCC School Board President Jim Nickols has announced.

"With so much variance among the proposed cuts to K-12 education in the General Assembly, it is difficult for the administration and the School Board to calculate what the impact will be upon the school division, and most importantly, W-JCC employees," Nickols said. "In order to have a meaningful discussion, I believe it was essential to have a substantive discussion on the budget. Until the General Assembly comes to an agreement on the funding cuts to K-12 education, I decided, in consultation with board members, to wait until Wednesday, March 10. By then, the dust may have settled around the budget and allow the Board to review and amend W-JCC's budget as appropriate in order to insure our core mission of providing a quality education for all our children."

Supt. Gary Mathews is still scheduled to present a Superintendent’s proposed budget at a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, March 10, at 5:30 p.m. in the Warhill High School auditorium.
