

Rubric for Generic Information

Rubric For Information

4 = The student understands the important information completely. The student knows details about the information.

3 = The student understands the important information.

2 = The student does not completely understand the important information, or the student's thinking shows some mistakes about the information.

1 = The student does not understand the important information. The student's thinking shows big mistakes about the information.

0 = The student does not try to do the task.

Rubric for Generic Procedures

Rubric for Processes and Skills

4 = The student does the skill correctly and easily. The student understands the important parts of the skill.

3 = The student does the skill correctly but not easily.

2 = The student makes some big mistakes when he does the skill, but the student can still do the basic steps in the skill.

1 = The student makes so many big mistakes that he cannot do the skill.

0 = The student does not try to do the skill.