Senior Personal Highlights

The following questions are especially valuable to counselors because admissions officials want these insights. Please share with us your personal stories and give specific examples – they are extremely helpful!

- What three adjectives would your classmates use to describe you and why?

- Describe in detail your two greatest achievements during your high school years.

- How do you use your free time (summer & winter breaks, weekends, after school)?

- Is there a particular event that stands out to you as life altering? If so, please describe the event and how it impacted you.

- Is your academic record indicative of your potential? Please explain why or why not.

- What characteristics make you who you are? What values do you hold in highest regard?

- What activity or activities are you passionate about? Why? Have you grown as a result of your involvement?

- Describe three experiences you have had during your high school years that have impacted you as a person. (Community service, extracurricular activities, academic success or challenge).

- If you could suggest one thing for your counselor to include in your letter of recommendation, what would it be?
